In 2016 local travel writer TOM CHESSHYRE set forth from a meadow in the Cotswolds heading for the North Sea to fulfil a life-long ambition: to walk the length of the River Thames.

Tom comes to MESS to share his experiences of the 215-mile journey, now the subject of his latest book.

"From Source to Sea is a love letter to England's greatest river – a river that has seen everything, inspired countless writers and artists, and continues steadily on its way, minding its own business as it swirls onwards to the sea."
