

MISSING PEOPLE

A talk about the essential work of this locally-based charity

In the heart of East Sheen, this charity has been supporting people away from home and the families left behind for over 25 years. The charity was set up by sisters Mary Asprey and Janet Newman in response to the disappearance of Suzy Lamplugh in 1986.

Missing People now provides vital practical and emotional support to the 186,000 people reported missing each year in the UK, as well as for families with missing loved ones.
